Tony writes:

Dear friends,

Many people think of the worship of the Church as something, which happens on separate, unconnected Sundays. On this assumption it is fine to pick and choose which Sunday to come to Church. However, from November until June, the worship of the Church is something of a journey, a journey, which is, in fact, in two stages. It is sad that there are many people who pay flying visits to the mid-points of the stages at Christmas and Easter and ignore all that leads up to and flows from them. Journeying, being pilgrims together is part of God's will for his people and is also part of a cyclical ancient rhythm, which followed the seasons.

In pre-Christian times much was made of the moments of transition, pivotal moments half-way between the solstices and the equinoxes. They were the year's turning points and while Christmas was a Christianisation of the winter solstice or Yule, All Saints (Samhain), Candlemas (Imbolc), May Day (Beltane) and Lammas (Lughnasa) continued the tradition of the "turning points", the first two decidedly Christian and the latter two relics of something much more ancient, as is, of course, the Eve of All Saints', known to us as Halloween!

The first stage in the journey actually ends this month and began 3 months ago at the turning-point of All Saints' Day on 1st November, when we remind ourselves who we are, namely the journeying people of God on earth and in heaven. We then turn our faces towards Christmas, a process which gathers pace in Advent, when we prepare ourselves for the Coming of Christ to all of us. This is the recurring theme of the winter journey: God's gift of himself to us in Jesus for the healing and salvation of the world. We stand at the manger in Bethlehem and receive this gift afresh and then remind ourselves in the subsequent season of Epiphany that this is no private gift, but rather a gift for the whole world. The 3 month journey ends at Candlemas on the 2nd February, when we remember the presentation of the child Jesus in the Temple and turn our focus again to look towards Easter.

As we turn towards Easter, we very quickly (especially quickly this year!) begin the period of 40 days, which we call Lent. This is a time of preparation; a time to look afresh at our lives, resolving to put away things that are hindering our journey of faith and take on things which will have more positive effects. We do all of this, so that we will be ready to share in the great mysteries of our faith, as we journey with Our Lord in the days which lead up to his death on the cross. The joy of new life and new hope at Easter will be diminished, if we have not walked with Jesus through the dark days of Holy Week.

And so, we journey on into Easter. Easter is, however, not one day, but another journey of 40 days, this time walked in the company of the risen Christ, leading to his Ascension and culminating in the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Now Jesus hands the baton over to us. Jesus bids us continue the journey with his life and strength to enable us. "Go into all the world," he says, "And know that I am with you to the end of time." So begins afresh the real journey, the journey of our lives. The journey of our worship has been just a preparation, a springboard for living Christ's life in the world day by day, knowing that he is with us; that our journey is his journey and his journey ours, whatever roads we may travel now and in the days and years to come.

God bless you on your journey,

I am sure everyone will have noticed that the long overdue renovation/restoration of the church organ has now begun. It is quite a revelation to see how many different bits and pieces make up an instrument and have faith that the organ-builders know how to put it all back together again! Hopefully the organ will be ready for Easter.

Aston and Weston Mother's Union

Bishop Libby writes that many of us feel a sense of relief that the winter equinox is passed and we can begin to look forward to brighter, warmer days and the coming of Spring. She says that we often read in the Bible that God's good work is often done away from the spotlight, away from attention or glamour. She encourages us to think of the ways God may be transforming our lives.

This fits in so well with our MU theme of ‘Transformation – Now!’

She wants us to think of our MU, our churches and communities not in big bold, brassy ways but quietly away from the razzmatazz. We think of all the good work that MU does quietly overseas especially in Africa with all the keen Christians there.

Also today we have been to the funeral of Eunice Knibb of Shardlow. Mrs. Knibb led the Mothers' Union there, meeting in her farmhouse, and became Melbourne MU Deanery President. Later she became the Diocesan President, and all the work she undertook, and the encouragement she gave to members was all achieved away from the spotlight.

We hope you have all received your MU programme for the year, which Mary has kindly printed. There are some good speakers ahead! If you would like an extra programme to give to a friend, please ask Mary.

“Books in the Belfry” – the All Saints' Community Library is open for everyone in Aston to use free of charge. We are grateful for gifts of books, but we would prefer not to receive non-fiction books .

January Service

An enjoyable morning was had in early January to return St James' back to normal after the Christmas festivities. Baubles and candles, angels and manger were all safely packed away for another year. Many thanks to all those who helped tidy and clean the church ready for our January service. The visual reminders of Christmas may have been removed, but as usual Paul gave us all much to think about in his sermon as he described just how much God gave to us in his Christmas gift of his Son Jesus.

Easter Lilies

It has long been a tradition at St James' for us to purchase special lilies for display over Easter, funded by individual donations in memory of departed loved ones. If we are to continue this tradition, we need a volunteer to coordinate the donations and ordering of the flowers. Please can anyone who might be willing to take on this duty speak to Ann Worrall or Pauline Sims? Thank you.

January PCC Meeting

We were very pleased to meet in a warm house rather than the church on what was a freezing night, many thanks to Pauline for hosting the PCC meeting. There are a few buildings maintenance issues which need to be addressed in the coming months. We are currently waiting for quotes, but hopefully repair work on the tower, guttering and other areas will be underway before too long. Subjects such as data protection, safeguarding and fundraising were also discussed.

PCC Annual Meeting

Advance notice – Our PCC AGM will be held after the service on Sunday 12th March – everyone is very welcome to attend to hear reports on activities over the last year. If anyone is interested in joining the PCC, this is an ideal opportunity to find out what is involved. Meetings are held quarterly, usually in the Harpur Room, to plan future services and ensure the church building is well maintained. We would be very happy to welcome new members.

All Saints' 200 Club

Swarkestone members of the All Saints' 200 Club have been very lucky in recent months. The first prize has been won twice by our members in the last year! It really is a very simple way to raise funds for your parish church and gives you a chance to win a cash prize at the same time. A number can be bought for £5 per month which is then entered into the draw every month. 35% of the proceeds is designated as prize money, 20% for first prize, 10% for second prize and 5% for third prize. The remaining 65% is divided among the participating churches according to how many numbers they hold. In 2021 Swarkestone received £351 to support church funds from 8 numbers held by parishioners. If you would like to join the fun, please speak to any member of the PCC for more information. Good Luck

If you want to keep up with our news more regularly, please look for and like our Facebook page – you'll find photos and snippets about happenings at St James' and Swarkestone are added most weeks. <https://www.facebook.com/StJamesChurchSwarkestone>

Flowers: Mrs J Jackson and Mr P Woodward

The afternoon Carol Service held on 18th December was lovely and well attended. It was rather a dark afternoon but fortunately there was no rain and the River Trent stayed within its banks! Our afternoon service held on 15th January proved to be more problematic as Ferry Lane was flooded and the only access to Church was via the flood road across the fields. As the flood road is somewhat uneven, Peter Woodward kindly offered lifts from Twyford Green where cars could be parked safely, to church – many thanks to Peter. I often think of the many generations before us who coped with the same problem, but in their case, most would walk across the fields and leave their Wellingtons at the Church door.

Christmas Tree Festival.

After an evaluation meeting of the events committee in early January, it has been decided to call time on this event. It was felt there are now various Christmas based activities in and around the area all trying to attract footfall. A large amount of time is taken in the pre & after staging of the event. St Mary's has held a Christmas Tree festival for over 15 years up to the pandemic. Could we thank all the people who over these years have supported the events and made it the success it was.

However, plans are forming to hold a Candle lit Carol Service with accompaniment.

It will not be a brass band, but something we think has never be tried before.

Weston (Derbyshire) Day.

Pencil the date of 16th September 2323 into your diaries and phones as this is the date for the 2nd event at St Mary the Virgin. We hope to build on last year with more street food, stalls & entertainment. Looking and engaging with a local children's fun fair, having a picnic area as well as wood crafts in the copse.

More details as we get them.
